

ORDINANCE NO. 3, Series 1950

AN ORDINANCE TO RE-NAME THE STREETS OF THE CITY OF ELGIN AND TO CHANGE THE NAMES OF THE SEVERAL STREETS AS THEY APPEAR UPON THE PUBLIC PLATS OF SAID CITY FILED FOR RECORD, AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS in the recorded plats of the city of Elgin and the several additions thereto the names of a number of the streets have been duplicated, and certain streets have been known by more than one name, which has resulted in confusion, and it is desirable and necessary to correct the situation by re-naming the streets of the city in a systematic manner, NOW THEREFORE,

THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF ELGIN DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That in this ordinance, names of additions shall refer to platted additions and subdivisions of the city of Elgin, Union County, Oregon; that streets, roads or highways running north and south shall be known as avenues, and those running east and west shall be known as streets.

Section 2. That the street and road heretofore known as Elgin-Weston Highway, extending through Sommer's Addition, and White Street in Thompson's Addition, and thence to and over "C" Street in Hindman's Addition, be changed from said names of Elgin-Weston Highway, White Street and "C" Street to DIVISION STREET, and that the streets and parts of streets running north and south and lying north of said Division Street be known by the additional designation of North, and that such streets and parts of such streets lying south of said Division Street be known by the additional designation of South.

Section 3. That in numbering the locations on the avenues running north and south said numbering shall begin at the first location north of Division Street with Number 1, and continue consecutively northward with odd numbers on the east side and even numbers on the west side, and shall begin at the first location south of Division Street and continue consecutively southward in the same manner; that in numbering the locations on the streets running east and west, such numbering shall begin at the first location on a block at the Grande Ronde River with Number 1, and continue consecutively westward with odd numbers on the north side and even numbers on the south side. The numbering shall be so arranged that the numbers on the north and south sides of each block shall correspond with the numbers in the blocks north and south thereof, and the numbers on the east and west sides of each block shall correspond with the numbers in the blocks east and west thereof. All numbering of locations on all streets and avenues shall allow 100 numbers per block.

Section 4. That the names of the streets running in a northerly and southerly direction shall begin with the first street west of Grande Ronde River as FIRST AVENUE and continue numerically west to the west boundary of said city and be called avenues, and when any street is opened to the east of South Fifth Avenue or to the east of North Third Avenue or to the west of Eighteenth Avenue, such street when so opened shall be named in accordance with its numerical position.

Section 5. That the name of Alder Street on the east boundary line of Hindman's Addition is hereby changed to North Third Avenue.

Section 6. That, proceeding in a westerly direction, Balm Street in Hindman's Addition is hereby changed to NORTH FOURTH AVENUE.

Section 7. That Spring Street on the East boundary line of Stevenson's Addition, Elgin Addition and Northside Main Street Addition is hereby changed to SOUTH FIFTH AVENUE, and Oak Street in Hindman's Addition is hereby changed to NORTH FIFTH AVENUE.
